

Rule 13. Appeal

(a) Appealable order. Any final order issued pursuant to D.C. Code § 16-1005, any order granting or denying extension, modification, or rescission of such order, or any adjudication of contempt shall be appealable to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals and shall be governed by the rules of that court.

(1) A notice of appeal shall be filed within thirty (30) days after entry of any final order (e.g., a civil protection order, an order granting or denying modification or rescission, or an adjudication of contempt).

(2) Upon a showing of excusable neglect, the Superior Court may extend the time for filing the notice of appeal by any party for a period not to exceed thirty (30) days from the expiration of the time prescribed in subparagraph (a)(1) of this rule. However, if such a request is made after the initial thirty (30) day period has expired, the request shall be made by motion, with notice to the other parties.

(b) Stay of order appealed from. The Court may stay its order pending appeal upon such terms and conditions as it deems proper only on written motion of the appellant, with notice to the appellee.
